

EU-Chile Trade SIA: Public Consultation

Fields marked with * are mandatory.

A Introduction

About the modernisation of the Chile-EU trade agreement

In 2003, Chile was the first South American country to have a trade agreement with the EU, as part of the EU-Chile Association Agreement. Since then, the global economy has changed profoundly, and trade agreements have also become much broader and deeper. Therefore, Chile and the EU have decided to modernize the existing agreement. Negotiations on the modernisation have started in November 2017 and are currently ongoing. Details about the negotiations, including the issues covered and text proposals are available from the European Commission DG Trade (in English) and the Government of Chile (in Spanish, with text proposals in English).

About Sustainability Impact Assessments (SIAs)

SIAs analyse the potential economic, social, human rights and environmental impact of trade agreements being negotiated by the European Union (EU). They are based on a robust analysis of the changes that are likely to be caused by the trade agreement in the EU, the partner country and specified other countries. Equally important, they include wide-ranging consultations with stakeholders in the EU and the partner country. SIA findings and recommendations feed into the negotiations, helping negotiators to optimise the related policy choices.

The SIA in support of the modernisation of the trade pillar of the existing EU-Chile Association Agreement is implemented by BKP Development, a German-based economic research and consulting firm, in cooperation with Vincular, the Center for Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development at the Catholic University of Valparaíso in Chile. More information about the SIA is available on a dedicated website.

About trade between Chile and the EU

The EU is Chile's third largest trading partner, after China and the US, in 2017 representing some 14% of Chile's total trade. Conversely, Chile accounts for 0.5% of total EU trade in goods. Trade between Chile and the EU in 2017 stood at € 17 billion (€ 8.2 billion EU imports and € 8.8 billion EU exports), with the EU's main exports to Chile being machinery and transport equipment (52% of total EU exports to Chile in 2017), manufactured goods (22%) and chemical products (15%). Chile's main exports to the EU are food and live animals (33%), raw materials (32%, mainly copper), and manufactured goods (23%). In addition, bilateral trade in services in 2016 amounted to € 5.5 billion (€ 3.7 billion EU exports and € 1.8 billion EU imports). Finally, the EU is Chile's first Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) provider. Total EU FDI stock in Chile in 2016 stood at € 47.2 billion.
